Franz Jägerstätter_ Christian and Martyr

A fully illustrated account of the life and influence of Blessed Franz Jägerstätter, the Austrian farmer who refused to fight for Hitler. In 1943 he was executed for his resistance, and beatified by the Church in 2007 for his faithful obedience to God - and his conscience.

Co-published with the Diocese of Linz. Includes reflections from political and church leaders on what Franz Jägerstätter means for us today.
